

Lube & Tire Technician

Location: Langley, B.C.

Hino Central is committed to exceeding their customer's expectations. To do that, you need to provide the very best service. We're seeking a Lube & Tire Technician to join our team immediately at our 20020 – 96 Avenue location.

OUR EMPLOYEES ENJOY:

- Exceeding their customers' expectations;
- Industry-leading benefits including health, dental, vision care and a company matching RRSP program. Our extended health plan even includes additional services such as physiotherapy, massage therapy, chiropractor visits, acupuncture treatments and more;
- Full time, steady employment in a team oriented environment and the opportunity to work in a company that is growing across Canada;
- Showcasing their positive attitude and receiving recognition for the hard work that you do;

YOU WILL NEED TO:

- Have excellent communication and organization skills;
- Have a strong mechanical aptitude and have the ability to handle multiple tasks;
- Assess work orders, diagnose faults and malfunctions by examining the vehicle and reporting defect
- Perform preventative maintenance on vehicles such as oil changes, lubrication and tune-ups
- Remove wheels, replace tires and balance and refit to vehicle
- Perform additional duties as required by shop needs

Qualifications:

- Previous experience in the industry an asset
- Good all-round knowledge of the trucking industry

If you think you qualify and you are looking for long term employment, please contact Human Resources at HR@hinocentral.com (mailto:HR@hinocentral.com). Hino Central is an affiliate company of The Driving Force Inc., which has 29 branches across Western, Northern and Central Canada.

We thank all candidates for their interest; however, only individuals with appropriate qualifications and experience selected for an interview will be contacted.

